RECOVERY OF THE BODY OF THE MISSING CATERER - WAS HE MURDERED ?-On Monday morning, February 28, William Mitchell, the colored caterer at the St. Charles Hotel, was seen in a grocery store on Franklin street, where he bought a small quantity of it. One of Mrs. Whitlock's daughters, who whiskey, since which time he had been missing until yesterday afternoon, when his cut the young man in the face. body was found in the lock near Eleventh street while a canal-boat was passing through. It was in this lock that Mary Holmes was thrown. When found, Mitchell had a shoe and stocking on his left foot and a stocking ands; $3.90 for 1.500 pounds; $4.90 for on his right foot, but there was no other article of clothing upon him. There was a cut over the right eye and two cuts over the left eye, and a remarkable depression on the right side of the skull, which will have to be ex amined in order to ascertain whether it is a natural conformation or the result of violence. The body was considerably decomposed when found, and after being wrapped up was taken to the City Morgue, where Dr. Taylor will make a post mortem examination and hold an ir quest to-day.

Mitchell's mother-in-law states that she has beard him threaten to drown himself. He was thirty-six years old, lived near the City Morgue, and leaves a wife.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON DOCK STREET .- Mr. Hawes desires it to be stated that he was informed by an eye-witness that Richard Ridley was not knocked from the cars by striking the bridge, but that while walking from one car to another he lost his footing and fell. An eye witness who gave Coroner Taylor the facts, and from whom we received them, states that Ridley had his back to the bridge, and his head struck it as the cars passed under; and that is the way he was knocked off.

COST OF PLANS FOR VENTILATING THE CAPIrol.—The Senate Committee on Public Institutions yesterday morning agreed to compromise the claim of Albert Lybrock for making plans and drawings for ventilating the Capitol, and accordingly addressed the Governor the following letter. Mr. Ly brock's bill was, it is stated, $600; so it will be seen the committee recommend that he be paid one half of that amount:

Sir .- The Committee on Public Institutions determined to recommend to your Excellency to pay out of the contingent fund the sum of three hundred dollars to Albert formed as follows: Catholic Total Absti-Lybrock, architect, for plans, estimates, and specifications furnished them in considering the question as to the proper ventilation of the Capitol; which placs, & ., are now in the possession of the Superintendent of Public Buildings. By order of the committee. Respectfully, WILLIAM D. QUESENBERRY, Chairman ot Committee.

He attempted to go out the room, but Porter Whitlock gave him, Wells said to the Police count for the profits while it was in his Justice that nine-and-thirty were nothing to hands.

Mrs. Whitlock did not deny the as ault. She said her daughter was only about fifteen years of age, and, in the absence of her husband, she deemed it right and duty to become ber daughter's defender. In court Mr. Wells protested that he addressed the note to Miss Emma Whitlock with the purest intentions. He stated that where he expected to meet her was at his (Leibermuth's) factory, which is quite a pub-Mr. Hall-the gentleman mentioned in Mr.

Wells's note-and Mr. Porter declared that they took no part in the cowhiding, but Justice White nevertheless was of opinion that they were accomplices. Justice White said that as the cowhiding had been done in a house, not in the street, as in other cases where the public had been outraged, he would impose on Mrs. Whitlock the light fine of five dollars. Hall and Porter each were fined ten dollars.

Richmond. Reversed, Judge Moncure delivering the opinion of the court. Reuben Williams was the room-mate of Peter I pulled my hat over my face and walked Shield. Both were stone-cutters, and last year Williams was charged with robbing Shield's trunk of $150. A very considerable portion of the amount he gambled away, and it was recovered from the gamblers by Detective John Wren. Accused was tried, P. S .- I think your friend Mr. Hall was found guilty, and his term of imprisonment in the penitentiary fixed at three years. The Supreme Court held that Judge Guigon erred in not excluding from the jury the transactions between Wren and the gamblers. This, it is believed, will result in the acquittal of the accused, if, indeed, the Commonwealth's attorney does not now enter a nolle prosequi. Accused is in the city jail, Sands vs. Page, escheator, &c. From the Circuit Court of the city of Richmond. Amended and affirmed, Judge Staples delivering the opinion of the court. Chalkley while in the discharge of his duty, and fined twenty-five dollars by the jury Mr. S. M. Page, counsel for the accused, asked that the verdict be set aside upon the ground that it was contrary to the law and evidence. The Court overruled the motion, and the counsel filed a bill of exceptions thereto. The court added thirty days' confinement in jail to the finding of the jury.

CONTINUED .- Four of the counts against Phil. Epps and Charles Robinson, indicted for arson upon the property of Colonel F. G. Ruffia, of Chesterfield, were continued in the County Court yesterday until the next term. The other two counts were elected to be tried in the Circuit Court.

FINED.-Charles Turpin (colored) was fined two dollars each in two cases yesterday by the Mayor for riding his horse at a faster rate than the law allowed.
